

Is It Possible To Work With Off-Earth Allies?

a reader's question answered by

Ken'u

While this reader's question is personal, it reflects the experience of many these days. The question is answered by one of our Off-Earth Allies: Ken'u, Head of the Stellar Council associated with Earth¹.

Question From Kathy

I have a great desire to meet our Off Earth Allies and learn from them. I had a vivid dream about going to "school" on a spacecraft. I want to learn about the true history of humanity and our relationship with our Off-Earth Allies/Ancestors and then teach others. Is this a possibility in the near future?

Ken'u Responds

I thank Kathy for her question as it gives me the opportunity to share information on an important topic.

Kathy mentioned a vivid dream of hers about going to "school" on a spacecraft.

Kathy, I have news for you – it was not a vivid dream, but a memory of your nightly activity, memory of participation in a class on board a spacecraft. I hope you are not shocked or surprised by this revelation.

Yes, this is correct – you were on board a spacecraft.

Prior to incarnation, many souls that are currently incarnate on this planet offered to be of assistance to the Divine Plan when it started to unfold visibly on this planet. We accepted their offer and agreed that when the time came, we would call them for preparatory classes – classes on board our spacecraft.

The easiest time for incarnate humans to attend these preparatory classes is while you sleep. You gave your consent to work with us for the emergence of the Earth Masters and their Allies. The time has come. The time is now. The preparation is taking place on a larger scale. Many, many classes are conducted on board our mother ship and many different topics are presented to prepare you for your individual and collective roles.

Each of you who volunteered and was accepted has an assignment that you agreed to. These assignments are part of the Divine Plan to support the Masters and their Allies.

The preparatory classes create not only the opportunity to hear lectures given by Masters or their Allies so that you can understand and master certain topics, they also serve a catalytic function. They introduce souls to each other so they can form teams, work together across dimensions and become part of a larger network.

Group work is very important.

Group work is our tool of the future, never forget that!

During your preparatory classes you are introduced – or reintroduced – to other souls. You then establish teams and you agree to work in these teams again once you are back in your dimension, once you become aware of your mission and have identified your teammates. When you meet your teammates from the preparatory class in your “real day-to-day life,” when you consciously recognize them and sense the etheric link that you have to one another, this will be a moment of immense joy for you both.

This intuitive remembering of each other when meeting for the first time will be quite strong – stronger than what you have ever experienced before, as we agreed on triggers that we have been allowed to use for the purpose of establishing our human partner teams relatively fast.

Time is of the essence here!

We also agreed that we would allow you recollection of your visits to us when you are reaching the end of your preparatory classes and need confirmation and explanation of your “dream memories.”

It is all orchestrated.

We are watching and guiding you all.

Kathy asked if it would be possible for her to become a teacher once she learned about the history of this planet, the history of humanity and our – we who are Off-Earth Allies – involvement and relationship.

Kathy, may I ask you for your opinion now that I have confirmed that you were on board the mother ship attending classes? What does your intuition, your heart tell you? What do you think will be your next step? Have you met people recently that felt somehow familiar to you although you have never met them before – at least while you were awake?

Observe yourself, Kathy – and this advice I would like to extend to all of you, to each reader.

These memories that you may have on awakening, do not push them aside as “vivid dreams.” These are the first glimpses of a new chapter in your life, glimpses of work that you volunteered for a long time ago. When you hear the call, when you suddenly wake up one morning knowing from the bottom of your heart exactly what to do next, then strange as this knowing may be, be assured that your mission has taken a new, giant leap forward. You are now starting to apply the wisdom you learned during your nightly classes, apply it in your day-to-day life. Your assignment has started!

Congratulations to all those who have had recollections of strange dreams or recollections of strange encounters with people you had never met before, but felt very comfortable with immediately. You have entered a new phase of service to this planet, to Humanity, to the Masters and their Allies! We welcome you!

Sincerely,

Ken’u
