

Planning The Shift – A Collaboration

Humanity, Spiritual Hierarchy, Angelic/Devic Kingdom

an essay from Master Yeshua

I will begin by speaking of the archangels. They are more than protectors and healers and guides. Archangels are the ones we in the Spiritual Hierarchy most frequently plan with. I would wish you to realize – heart and mind – that a new civilization will emerge from and for humanity as a result of the shift that is upon us all.

Plans for this new civilization can only be fully accomplished with the aid of all kingdoms.

- the Angelic/Devic Kingdom, in all its branches, in all its characteristics, its various layers
- the Hierarchy, the 5th Kingdom of ascended beings, and
- the Human Kingdom

It is only in working together that this civilization can emerge, and that kind of effort takes planning. We plan, we plan together.

The Planners

Planners are led by Sanat Kumara, who is the representative of that great entity, our Planet Earth. He resides on Shamballa, the inner seat of planetary government, in etheric matter above the Gobi desert.

Angelic/Devic Kingdom

Planners include the highest members of this kingdom, the highest healers and the highest builders.

Angelic/Devic Kingdom high-level overview

Senior Management
archangels and others

Angels

healers and guides
Builders, aka “devas”
architects, engineers,
designers, pattern
makers, construction workers, maintenance

Elementals

tiny beings that create the material the builders use

Hierarchy

Planners include the Masters of Wisdom and their senior disciples, especially those who are newly ascended. Senior disciples have reached a point where they have no more mandatory lives on Earth, but they are not yet Masters. They do voluntary incarnations for specific purposes. Thus, they become an "interface layer" with the Human Kingdom. They are advisors and consultants. Since their human experience is more recent than that of the Masters who guide and advise humanity, they can give insight.

Human Kingdom

Planners from the Human Kingdom are chosen from those disciples who are nearly ready to ascend. They are humans we have worked with and guided, those we know we can rely upon to choose lives of service.

It is only with

- the builders and healers in the Angelic/Devic Kingdom,
- the Spiritual Masters in all their energetic diversity,
- the interface layer with humanity, and
- those still in the Human Kingdom that this planning effort takes place.

I shall not go into who plans what, and who speaks up when. It is sufficient to say that the change coming forward on Earth, the change with Earth, is as significant, as vast and as important as all the focus among the spiritual community that can be seen on the Internet, on Facebook, on Twitter, and on YouTube would have you believe. The coming change, the shift, is as vast and serious and momentous as those forms of communication would indicate.

And it is planned.

Beginning, Middle And Outcome

Now when we plan, we plan and know the beginning. We have now eased through the beginning, and the beginning has passed. We have begun.

And we who plan know the outcome. We know the target. We know where we must arrive. We know that Earth and humanity will arrive.

The middle, between the beginning and the outcome, is where the Devic Kingdom builders work. It is where humanity works. It is where we of the Hierarchy work with those in humanity who will listen – the spiritually aware (or the spiritually not aware who are guided by their souls, by their guides, though they know it not). Working together, these are the ones who make things happen. Working together, they will effect this change and bring it about.

This change is happening across the board. I have spoken of institutions. Institutions rise and institutions fall. And I have spoken of the work of the Angelic Kingdom in thought-form work and those thought-forms which are kept alive by humanity, by human energy pouring in.¹ So the builders build. If necessary, the builders on all levels can unbuild what they build, and what they have built.

The devic builders are responsive to human thought and humanity's ideas. But they are also responsive to their own leaders, to their own supervisors as it were. So there is a duo working. We who guide humanity are working with leaders to create new thought-forms. We are working with the rest of humanity to have them pay attention to new thought-forms so they'll pour their energy into the new thought-forms rather than the existing thought-forms – economy for one, international relations, government. Forms of government evolve. Economy and economic models evolve. I don't think I need to say more.

The plan is that humanity will take the next step in their day-to-day lives, in their spiritual lives. If they do not claim a spiritual life, then we would have them take the next step in whatever they call their world view as to how it is the world functions mentally, emotionally and physically.

Physical Changes

Let us take how the world functions physically. Let us take what is happening to the Great Being who has manifested as Planet Earth.

Planet Earth has been personified in many spiritual outlooks. And the Earth that we rely upon for existence, this Earth has been called Mother Earth. That is fitting. That is due respect.

If you think of Mother Earth as a Being with a physical body – there are many television shows that explore the diversity and the beauty of this physical body that is the Planet Earth. This physical body has been taken out of equilibrium. It has been abused. Its resources have been mishandled. They have not been shared.

Owning – owning land. What a very strange idea. I would say it is only borrowed. For the only owner of the land is the Great Being who is Mother Earth. It is her body. So you are borrowing, and that is fine.

The important issue is the mind-set change. We must all accept the fact that this upcoming shift we hear so much about impacts the physical body of the Being that created all who walk upon her, the Being who sustains all who walk upon her, and only with the help, quite frankly, of the sun, but we won't get into that. With the help of the moon as well, but we won't get into that.

This shift takes place here, physically – on Earth. And it takes place internally – within each person.

We Change With The Earth

As the Earth changes, so does the vibrational capacity of those who inhabit the Earth. And if we do not change, it is regrettable. It can be painful.

So the change is physical. The change is spiritual – mental, say some, but I prefer spiritual.

Now, what does all this mean? What does this mean in your daily lives, and what does this have to do with angels, devas and archangels?

This has to do with the fact that angels, devas and archangels and their entire kingdom have been working tirelessly, building the body of Planet Earth, building your bodies. The entire Angelic/Devic Kingdom – down to the elementals that build your bodies – must shift, because the matter they use to build these human bodies that you inhabit, that matter itself is changing.

Now, can your science measure this yet? No. Take my word for it, it is changing. And up and down the Devic Kingdom, they can be unbuilding in mental matter.

While we are guiding those we guide, and those who will hear, we encourage them to consider

- creative new ways of living,
- sharing the Earth,
- sharing the government of Planet Earth, and
- sharing the resources of Planet Earth.

While we are encouraging all this, we are guiding the leaders of humanity to create new thought-forms. We are encouraging these leaders to reach out and find collaborators who will devote their energy to building these new thought-forms. Then the elementals that work in mental matter will respond, and they will be creating these new thought-forms.

As these new thought-forms gain power, the existing thought-forms begin to crumble.

Human Awareness Expands

Changes can, and will, happen at the physical level as vibrations rise. Imagine a common dog whistle. Any dog owner who works very much with their pet knows about a dog whistle, a whistle that a dog can hear that a human can't.

Human ears hear only so much in the entire vibrational range of possible sound. In this planetary shift, imagine that the sound range – and this is only one example – imagine the vibrational sound range is 1 to 100. And imagine that human beings can hear vibrations from 30 to 70. But with this shift, human beings begin to hear sound vibrations from 40 to 80 or maybe 85.

Take the same picture and think of sight as a vibrational range of 1 to 100. The human eye picks up vibrations from 30 to 70 only. But from 70 to 100 there are things to see! (Elves, for example. I smile.) This capacity is called etheric vision by some. Those with etheric vision start by seeing above 70, perhaps to 75. As that shift accelerates, they may see from 40 to 80 in this vibrational range we call sight.

Now we can get into technical arguments about whether the range was always 1 to 100, and I am not going into that. But I am sure that some of you will.

The Veil Thins

The point is that where the limits were physically, there will be a shift. There will be new capacity. Not new functional capacity, but new range capacity to see, feel, hear and sense what has always been there but has not been accessible with the incarnated equipment of the human being, of humanity. That equipment is changing.

And with that change in human physical equipment, we must, must plan collateral changes with the Angelic/Devic Kingdom. We make that plan with the archangels on down. This vibrational shift, this physical change, will change the healing that archangels and angels do, and the healing work we do with them, and the healing work humanity calls on them to do because of this physical change.

When I spoke of elves, and the veil thinning, and children being able to see elves², these children are beginning to see beyond the 70 limit that I spoke of. They are beginning to see now what it is they will see after the shift is complete. Let them see, because that is what is coming.

They see fairies, and they see angels. They see members of the Angelic Kingdom that have been working with us and with humanity for ages.

² "Elves – An Introduction" (January 2012) ThoughtsFromAMaster.com.

Now that we of all kingdoms are beginning to work more closely together, you will be seeing not only elves and fairies and various other members of the Devic Kingdom. As those of us who are ascended emerge in our light-bodies, our bodies of light, you will see us. And we will work with each other to heal the planet – to heal Mother Earth.

But humanity must do this work.

The term restorative justice comes to mind. Humanity has created the pain that Mother Earth feels. Humanity has abused her resources. You've heard this how many times before? I'm not going into that.

I'm going into the fact that humanity has the creative power to heal.

Choose Creativity And Healing Over Fear

Once you understand the creative power of your thoughts and the destructive power of your anger, once you understand how you work with the Devic Kingdom to create thought-forms that move humanity forward or hold humanity back, you have a choice. Your choice is how this new civilization can be built.

Be aware. Look around. Look for those who are showing the path forward. Not those who are marketing fear, but those who are showing the path forward. The next change is on a much grander scale than change after much-feared change throughout history.

Consider the change that occurred between 1999 and the year 2000. There was much to-do about what would happen. Much fear. There were those that were marketing the fear, until that fear, through the obedient work of the elementals in the Devic Kingdom, became a very powerful thought-form in some areas. And there were those who simply rolled up their sleeves and got to work and made the necessary computer program changes so that things worked smoothly.

So for this shift, that is a much grander shift, on a much grander scale, I am asking you to work with the Angelic/Devic Kingdom and to work with your own spiritual guidance – be that your intuition or your soul or your spirit guides. I do not care the name you choose.

Search out the leaders who are showing you a way forward. Plan alternatives – plan a new and brighter future for humanity. Look there. Put your energy into those thought-forms.

But that is not enough. Put your energy into those thought-forms and roll up your sleeves and help forward-looking leaders build this future.

Help them build it.

Build The Next Civilization For Humanity

Use your creative influence by building in your daily lives, in your careers, as you interact with your neighbors and your children and your parents. Build the new, in a bright and better future that involves sharing and caring. (I don't think I am inventing that term.)

Listen to your hearts, not the fear. That is the way everything that has been planned at our level can come about. We see that end.

It is in the middle that free will reigns. I have spoken on free will.³

Where free will reigns, the path to the end can be rocky or smooth, can be full of pitfalls or stable. Approach this shift with hope and intelligence, looking for the leaders that are pointing the way.

This is what I would have you do and think about in these next few years, because in these next few years, the foundation for the new civilization is being laid.

Conclusion

My blessings on you all. May you find a leader with a positive, bright, loving, sharing, sustainable vision that is kind, not only to the Planet Earth, but to everyone on this Earth.

Find that leader, the one who speaks to you, the one whose work resonates in your heart. Then roll up your sleeves and help that leader make it happen.

Blessings,
