

On God

a commentary from
Master Yeshua

Question: There are many concepts of God. Could you please explain what you mean by God?

Response: You want to know what I mean by God the Father. You want to know what I mean by unification with God and who is God and which god are we talking about.

What can I say that will explain the many facets of the Creator we call God? What can I say that will explain the facets of Creator/Creation that is in totality God? God of Oneness – the energy system that binds Creator/Creation into a single unit, which means that God is within each one of you and God is in a fence post.

God is the soil of the Earth, the clay under the Earth, the center of the Earth, the moon, the stars. All this is Creator/Creation as a unit, as a wholeness, as a Oneness and yet as I explained in the first TFAM<sup>1</sup>, within this totality, within this Oneness, there is an individualization that becomes, as a generic term, the soul. The effect, as well as the experience of individualization, is holographic.

You Can Speak With God

Because of the holographic effect, God exists within. And God exists without, because Creator/Creation IS. So Neale Donald Walsch, in Conversations with God, can speak with God. He touches the holographic God that is and has always been within his being.

Each of you – the entire of humanity – has that potential and can do the same. The question is whether or not you are ready to seek this, whether or not you are ready to listen, whether or not you are determined to open that communication channel and speak, because there are layers there. Your soul is God; God is your soul. God is more than your soul, but God is your soul.

And within your soul is ever the spark of God. And if and when you are ready, you can listen. The trick is that you are not separate from God.

You Are Creator

I have spoken that you are not separate from one another; you exist in Oneness; Creator/Creation exists in Oneness and the purpose of all this is both experience and reunification, reunification with Creator/Creation being wiser than when you first individualized as a soul. And that reunification begins when you acknowledge that you are Creator – Creator of your own lives, of the world you live in. Because you are.

You, God and Reunificaton

To bring the concepts of you, God and reunification closer to home, let us take a raindrop. A single raindrop. And this raindrop says, "I am water."

This raindrop may soak into the earth and say, "I am water." And this raindrop may be absorbed into an aquifer, and say, "I am water." Aquifer to stream, stream to river, river to ocean. Or it may be stream to lake. At each and every point in the journey, the raindrop says, "I am water." But look at the reunification steps along the way.

This single raindrop joined other raindrops, each of them saying truthfully, "I am water." And they become a moving stream, joining yet other raindrops, each saying, "I am water." And they end up in a lake, each raindrop and the lake itself all saying, "I am water."

And they recycle into the clouds and come down as rain again and this time the stream goes into a river that leads to the ocean and each step along the way there is reunification, and each step of the way they all say, "I am water."

Each reunification is an expansion of "water." Work on that image.

Who Is The God You Pray To?

To return to something personal, who is this God you pray to? Who is this God you would speak with? Who is this God Neale Donald Walsch conversed with? Who is the God that I speak of when I say we Masters are not yet reunited with God? We have not reached that level of ascension. Who is that God?

Is that the same God – the same aspect of God – who spoke with Neale Donald Walsch, who could speak with you? Who you can pray to? Who I work with when I speak of God's Plan?

Well if God is all of Creator/Creation, and we are all Creator/Creation there is already the beginning of reunification. The purpose is ultimate, total, reunification.

"Raindrop Calling Lake"

When you pray, you are tapping into the Creator that is within you, and yet is more than within you because there is a totality, a Oneness. It is the raindrop speaking to the lake. It is the raindrop speaking to the stream and the ocean and the river. And each raindrop, each stream, each lake, each ocean says truthfully, "I am water."

God is and will be as close to you as you allow and will speak to you as you are willing to hear.

Let this sink in. Let it become part of you, that God is Creator/Creation to extents that go beyond the physical, to extents that go way beyond the galaxy. And God is Creator/Creation within the seat of your heart, within your soul. God is the energy network of Oneness that cannot be destroyed. Humanity living in harmony with nature, with the planet Earth, with the environment – creating that harmony . . . that is living with God.

One of God's Voices

If you can speak to animals, and if you can speak to plants – and there are those who use what are called psychic powers and can open those communication channels – you are speaking with God. An aspect of God. Part of God. That is one of God's voices, let us put it that way. One of God's voices – through very thick filters.

And you can speak with the God within. And is God your soul? Yes. Is the totality of God your soul? No. So if you are comfortable communicating with your soul, rather than the higher level of unity which might be called God or the Creator, then speak with your soul. If you, through your heart, wish to speak with God that is more than your soul, this is your choice.

But if you wish to speak with God who is your soul and/or God who is more than your soul, then you must be open enough to hear and you must be wise enough to listen.

The Totality Creator/Creation

Imagine being an electron, an electron circling a nucleus in an atom in a cell within your body. Let us pick a cell in the pancreas of your body. You are an electron circling a nucleus that is part of a cell that resides in the pancreas of your body.

And that electron wishes to speak to the Creator/Creation. This single electron reaches high enough, broadly enough to speak with your body, so you carry on an intellectual conversation with this electron and you explain to this electron that yes, indeed, it is part of you. You need it there, where it is, functioning, doing its thing. And it can contribute to health or it can contribute to illness.

But this electron within the cell, within the pancreas, within your body, does not understand that there is a whole world beyond your body, and beyond this world there is more. That may give you an idea, a concept to work on, to understand the totality of Creator/Creation.

So when I say the soul's purpose is reunification with the totality of Creator/Creation, humanity starts off as electrons. And the ultimate goal is a total reunification with all levels of the Cosmos. All, every part, every person, is energy. And all this energy is networked into One and Oneness.

Is Neale Donald Walsch speaking to God?

Yes.

When I speak of God and my commitment to God and my commitment to God's Plan, is this the same God?

Yes.

Is this a different God?

Yes.

Is it a different aspect of the same God?

Yes.

You are Creators. You are Creation. You are energy. And you have free will.

Speak to God. Speak to God and Create wisely.
